InPrint Milan 2020 cancelled

New dates for 3rd International Exhibition of Print Technology for Industrial Manufacturing in Milan, Italy to be announced in due course

Mack Brooks Exhibitions has today announced the cancellation of InPrint Milan, which was scheduled to be held at Fieramilano in Italy from 22 – 24 October 2020, in light of the ongoing Covid-19 crisis globally.

Speaking about the announcement, Nicola Hamann, Managing Director of Mack Brooks Exhibitions, said: “We are all aware that this year has been a challenging year so far. Many events had to be postponed to next year due to the repercussions of Covid-19 and ongoing travel restrictions, and many participants also raised concerns over their ability to attend the event this year. We therefore, in close coordination with all partners involved, have decided to cancel InPrint Milan 2020, with the date of the next event to be announced shortly.”

The InPrint Milan Team will communicate closely with customers and partners over the coming weeks and months and thank their exhibitors, partners, suppliers and visitors for their support during this challenging time.

InPrint Milan is the Italian edition of the InPrint brand. Other events include the flagship event InPrint Munich, Europe’s leading platform for the emerging community of printing professionals and manufacturers looking to maximise on new business potential of print applications in the industrial production sector. The next edition of InPrint Munich will take place at the Munich Trade Fair Centre in Germany from 9 – 11 March 2021.
